Section C

Definitions:

"Farm products" are crops, livestock or supplies used or produced in farming operations or if they are products of crops or livestock in their unmanufactured states (such as ginned cotton, wool-clip, maple syrup, milk and eggs), and if they are in the possession of a debtor engaged in raising, fattening, grazing or other farming operations. If goods are farm products they are neither equipment nor inventory.

"Chattel paper" means writing(s) which evidence both a monetary obligation and a security interest in or a lease of specific goods.

"Collateral" means the property subject to a security interest, and includes accounts and chattel paper which have been sold.

"Secured party" means a lender, seller or other person in whose favor there is a security interest, including a person to whom accounts or chattel paper have been sold. When the holders of obligations issued under an indenture of trust, equipment trust agreement or the like are represented by a trustee or other person, the representative is the secured party;

"Proceeds" includes whatever is received upon the sale, exchange, collection or other disposition of collateral or proceeds.
